AKOSH Program Directive 05-01

Date: July 8, 2004

To: Distribution List

From: Grey R. Mitchell, Director

Subject: Reorganization of Alaska Occupational Safety and Health

This Program Directive, PD 05-01, is formal notice that Alaska Department of Labor & Workforce Development, Division of Labor Standards & Safety has reorganized the management structure of Alaska Occupational Safety and Health (AKOSH).

The change eliminates the Chief of AKOSH position (PCN 07-2038) and reclassifies the Assistant Chief of Enforcement (PCN 07-2004) and the Assistant Chief for Consultation and Training (PCN 07-4532) to Program Manager level positions. The Program Manager positions have the working titles of "Chief of Enforcement" and "Chief of Consultation and Training". John Stallone is the new Chief of Enforcement and Cliff Hustead is the new Chief of Consultation and Training. This change was initiated for two basic purposes.

1. To streamline the chain of supervision by eliminating a middle management level.
2. To allow for more autonomy between enforcement and consultation programs.

This program directive becomes effective July 1, 2004. Please ensure that all members of your staff receive a copy of this program directive.
